PROXY STATEMENT
SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
JULY 23, 2001

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed Proxy are first being sent or given to shareholders of Penn National Gaming, Inc. (the "Company") on or about July 5, 2001, in connection with the solicitation of proxies for use at a Special Meeting of Shareholders of the Company to be held on July 23, 2001 (the "Special Meeting"), or at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying Notice of Special Meeting. The Special Meeting will be held at the offices of Schnader Harrison Segal & Lewis, LLP, 38th Floor, 1735 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103. This solicitation is being made on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company.

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

RECORD DATE AND SHARES OUTSTANDING

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on June 25, 2001, as the record date ("Record Date") for the determination of shareholders of the Company entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting. On the Record Date, 15,471,850 shares (excluding shares held in treasury) of the Company's Common Stock were issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting.

REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the person giving it at any time before its use by delivering to the Secretary of the Company written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person.

VOTING AND SOLICITATION

The presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all shareholders are entitled to cast is necessary for a quorum to be present at the Special Meeting. Each share of the Company's Common Stock outstanding is entitled to one vote on each matter which may be brought before the Special Meeting.

Proxies given in the form enclosed, unless previously revoked, will be voted at the Special Meeting in accordance with the instructions contained therein, AND IF NO CHOICE IS SPECIFIED, WILL BE VOTED IN FAVOR OF THE PROPOSAL SET FORTH IN THE NOTICE OF MEETING. Assuming a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Special Meeting is required for (i) the approval of the amendment; and (ii) the approval of any other matters which may properly come before the Special Meeting or any postponement or adjournment thereof. For purposes of determining the number of votes cast, only those cast "for" or "against" are counted. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not considered "cast" but are counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Special Meeting. Under Pennsylvania law, a quorum is required to conduct business at the Special Meeting.

It is expected that the solicitation of proxies will be conducted primarily by mail. Proxies also may be solicited personally or by telephone, telegraph, telecopy or via the internet. The cost of this solicitation will be borne by the Company. In addition, the Company may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation material to such beneficial owners. Proxies also may be solicited by certain directors, officers and employees of the Company, without additional compensation, personally or by telephone, telegram, telecopy or via the internet.

PROPOSAL 1: AMENDMENT OF THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF AUTHORIZED SHARES OF COMMON STOCK

On June 19, 2001, the Board of Directors declared advisable and unanimously approved an amendment to the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended (the "Articles of Incorporation"), of the Company to increase the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock that the Company is authorized to issue from 20,000,000 shares to 200,000,000 shares (the "Amendment").

If approved by the shareholders, the Amendment will become effective upon the filing of Articles of Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation with the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The Amendment would change Article 4, subparagraph (a) of the Articles of Incorporation to read in its entirety as follows:

"4. The aggregate number of shares which this Corporation shall have the authority to issue is:

(a) Two hundred million (200,000,000) shares of Common Stock with a par value of $.01 per share; and"

PURPOSE AND EFFECT OF THE AMENDMENT

As of the Record Date, of the Company's 20.0 million authorized shares of Common Stock, approximately 15.5 million shares were issued and outstanding, and approximately 2.6 million shares were reserved for future issuance under the Company's equity compensation plans, of which, currently, approximately 1.9 million are covered by outstanding options and approximately 700,000 are available for grant or award. Based upon the foregoing number of outstanding and reserved shares of Common Stock, the Company currently has approximately 1.9 million shares of Common Stock remaining available for issuance for other purposes.

The Board of Directors believes that it is in the Company's best interests to increase the number of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock to have additional shares available to meet the Company's future business needs as they arise. The Company has filed a shelf registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission seeking to register $300.0 million of securities of the Company, including its Common Stock. However, the Company has no present arrangements, agreements, understandings or plans for the use of the additional shares proposed to be authorized, including those shares that could be sold under the shelf registration statement, if such registration statement is declared effective. The Board of Directors believes that the availability of such additional shares will provide the Company with the flexibility to issue Common Stock for a variety of other purposes the Board may deem advisable without further action by the Company's shareholders, unless required by law, regulation or Nasdaq Marketplace rule. These purposes could include, among other things, the sale of stock to obtain additional capital funds or to acquire other companies, business or assets; to provide equity-based compensation and other employee benefit plans for employees, consultants and others; to declare future stock splits or distributions; and for other bona fide purposes.

There will be no change in the voting rights, dividend rights, liquidation rights, preemptive rights or any other shareholder rights as a result of the proposed Amendment. The additional shares might be issued at such times and under such circumstances as to have a dilutive effect on earnings per share and on the equity ownership of the present holders of Common Stock.

POTENTIAL ANTI-TAKEOVER EFFECT

The proposed Amendment could, under certain circumstances, have an anti-takeover effect, although this is not the intention of the Amendment. The increased number of authorized shares of Common Stock could discourage, or be used to impede, an attempt to acquire or otherwise change control of the Company. The private placement of shares of Common Stock into "friendly" hands, for example, could dilute the voting strength of a party seeking control of the Company.

Furthermore, many companies, including the Company, have issued rights to acquire shares of Preferred Stock to the holders of its Common Stock to discourage or defeat unsolicited share accumulation programs and acquisition proposals, which programs or proposals may be viewed by the Board of Directors as not in the best interest of the Company and the shareholders. Under the terms set forth in a Rights Agreement dated as of March 2, 1999 between the Company and Continental Stock Transfer and Trust Company (the "Rights Agreement"), each outstanding share of Common Stock includes one right. Each right entitles the registered holder, subject to the terms of the Rights Agreement, to purchase from the Company one unit, equal to one one-hundredth of a share of the Company's Series A Preferred Shares, par value $.01 per share, at an exercise price of $40.00 per unit, subject to adjustment. The rights are attached to all certificates representing outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock, and no separate rights certificates have been distributed.

In addition to the Series A Preferred Stock issuable pursuant to the Rights Agreement, the Board of Directors is authorized to issue shares of Preferred Stock in one or more other series without further action by the Company's shareholders, unless required by law, regulation or Nasdaq Marketplace rule. The Board of Directors is authorized to establish the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions, including, but not limited to, voting rights, dividend rights, conversion rights, redemption privileges and liquidation preferences, of such series of Preferred Stock. The authority of the Board of Directors to issue other series of Preferred Stock and to set the terms of such Preferred Stock also could discourage or defeat unsolicited share accumulation programs and acquisition proposals.

Although the Company presently has no intent to use the additional authorized shares of Common Stock for the purposes described above, if the Amendment is adopted, more capital stock of the Company would be available for such purposes than is currently available.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO AMEND THE COMPANY'S AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION, AS AMENDED, TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF AUTHORIZED SHARES OF COMMON STOCK.
